Authorization to Apply Federal Financ ial Aid to Non-Institutional Charges
Federal student financial aid can only cover "institutional charges" as defined by the U.S. Department of Education. This definition includes current year charges for tuition and fees, and on-campus room and board. Unless authorization is received, federal financial aid cannot be used to cover non-institutional charges such as: health fees, bookstore charges, library fines, parking fines, damage fees, returned check fees, mail box fees, lost key fees, judicial fines or any other charges not directly tied to taking a class.
The only way federal student aid fur written authorization to pay those chinstitutional charges.		pay for "non-institutional charges" is to obtain your allow us to apply your federal financial aid to your non-
